

During the throes of the McPlague, students thought they would be safe taking cover in Rouzer, but little did they know...

...the illness had already reached every food source on campus, leaving the confines of big baker as the only refuge.

A small cluster of students waded through the vomit piles to the chapel and went inside to talk with their friends before they got sick too.

Once they got inside, Anne was there to greet them with a smiling face. In addition to the McPlague, they knew that her presence was safe, so they stayed by her side. Unfortunately, even Anne's amazing power was not enough to save them, because the McPlague knew her weakness. That weakness was cookies. Sweet delicious hot fresh_baked glar cookies. But the McPlague was sentient and infected the cookies and cheese danishes, which is terrible, because the cheese danishes are the BEST. Anne foolishly bit into a cookie and began to feel ill, and ill like cool ill, but like sick ill. Her friends spied the oncoming vom bomb and made a run for it. However, rather than blasting gut chunks all over the chapel, Anne transformed into a McMonster and began terrorizing the campus. A small band of McRebels against the virus gathered their McWeapons and took to battling the monstrous Anne creature. Just as things were looking grim, Anne remembered her friends at the Writing Center and turned back into her normal, radical self. The McAwful was done, and all was right again.

The end.

"well," said Anne, "guess it's back to wrestling anacondas for me."

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Frederick.
she had purple hair and a handsome friend. but one day, her handsome friend was swimming in the pool.
suddenly, Frederick spied a hideous snake in the pool.
instead of ignoring the snake as he should have, he dove to cover under the skirt of the nearest person.
he was afraid for his sister if she is devoured by the snake, that she would sulk.

to run to you, it wasn't as bad as a test. it would be but he wasn't SURE IF he is like it. but he hopes so. One day they got sad. He was not too close to her.

A long time ago, there was a king named Gribbish Von Harold.
He ruled over his kingdom with an iron fist!
Unfortunately his iron fist was too heavy for him to lift
it. Gribbish had a helper who helped him. Gribbish had a helper who helped him.

Things were not looking good, the capsule was getting hotter by the second.

Spock started to feel his sweat collect around his inner earlobe. To make matters worse, Captain Kirk had a sweaty earlobe fetish.

But it was not to be. Out of nowhere, a vortex appeared and swallowed up Spock. Kirk cried out to the heavens, khaaaaaan!

Once upon a time, there was a giant crab and a giant tiger.

When the crab fornicated with the tiger its claws pinched his tail too hard.

Immediately the tiger was out of the food for any further hijinks.

"I'm so sorry, I don't know why this keeps happening."

The tiger held his bruised tail and frowned ferociously. In the next day, the tiger met a sweet little girl who was lost.

"I'm looking for my father, Mr. Rogers. Have you seen him? Help find his sweater at home! He never leaves home without it! The tiger said, "Maybe it is in the garden of your mind!!" So they went to the garden of his mind.

When the girl turned in on a spaceship, she saw a way plane that there was a giant baby without a diaper. The baby got away too close to the ship. ...!!!

In the garden of my mind, everybody loves bananas.
